

Please do not end the Do not call list - there are countless other ways for telemarketers to contact people without invading privacy.